

Legal Aid South Africa Junior Legal Practitioner vacancies Requirements:-

A South African legal tertiary qualification: LLB or B Proc degree.

Admitted Attorney/Advocate (the latter must have completed pupillage successfully at an institution recognised by Legal Aid SA).

At least two (2) years' post-qualification legal experience or exposure to criminal, civil litigation and experience in land rights matters.

Thorough knowledge of the core legal practice disciplines and how to implement and leverage these within the human rights' legal environment.

Thorough knowledge of litigation at District Court level, legal drafting, legal training and development, legal practice ethical and professional compliance management.

Effective working relationship with Management.

Excellent organisation and leadership skills and providing consistent, high-quality, professional legal services.

Excellent verbal and written communication.

Strong analytical ability and excellent communication skills.

NXTGOVTJOBS